CHRISTIAN AND CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Revised Newsletter:

Due to the cancellation of church and community events, including Sunday Worship, at CCC because of the COVID-19, this month's newsletter has been revised to include items of most importance only. If worship and activities resume in April, a calendar and serving schedule will be sent out.

The usual format should resume for May.

April Missions

Week of Compassion Special Offering

Christian Missions and Social Action Committee has designated Week of Compassion for the Ministry of the months of April and May.

Week of Compassion provides an opportunity to act together. As we heed the call of our faith - across denominations, working together in unity, as one ecumenical body - we are invited to make more of an impact than any one of us could alone. This is the gospel mandate, and the gospel hope.

THANK YOU:

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the Eureka Senior Center, CCC Mission project for March. Your offering will be divided between the Kitchen and Transportation. -Christian Missions & Social Action Committee

Dear Camp Friends, I'm writing to thank you for your generosity, helping us to keep the Disciples Center at Tawakoni operating and ready to serve both youth and other guests! Your recent gift of $100.00 is greatly appreciated as we anticipate all the expense of being ready for the summer season. Thank you! The camp is doing well. We were able to allocate funds for a full-time Caretaker (Sid Rutland of Independence). He loves the camp and is making great progress in many areas. And, he loves kids too, so he was a great choice. ... Blessings, Steve Martin, Regional Minister

SYMPATHY:

Betty (Soule) Uhl, Sherry Stapleford's aunt, died Tuesday, March 10, 2020. Funeral services were held Friday, March 13, 2020, at Koup Family Funeral Home.
